(c) whether implementation of the revival scheme is awaiting clearance from the promoter i.e. Government of India;

(d) whether BIFR has given two months' time to Government to crystallise its views failing which the company would be sold; and

(e) if so, the reasons for the delay in taking the decision to revive this company and the time frame set by Government to commence the revival process?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI MURASOLI MARAN): (a) yes, Sir.

(b) to (e) The revival scheme of BSCL is under consideration of the Government for finalisation of its views on the revival plan. Since BSCL is multi-unit & multi-product company, thorough examination required for determing its viability was a time consuming process for the consultant. BIFR, however has given two months time for firming-up the Govt.'s views. BIFR will finally examine the revival plan after taking into account the views of all interested parties including the promotors.
